

Saine Weekly

Volume 31 • Issue 17 • Friday 23rd February 2024

Back-to-Back MacRory Champions get set for Hogan Semi-Final

The Hogan Cup Semi Final will be in Ballyshannon, Co. Donegal on Sunday 25th and throw in is scheduled for 2pm. We wish our team and management all the success their commitment and talent deserves and hope you can join us on this momentous day!

Omagh CBS through to McGrath Cup Semi-Final

Omagh CBS are through to the Oisín McGrath Cup semi finals after a convincing 6-17 to 4-2 victory over St.Pats Armagh in Garvaghey on 9th February - Well done boys!!

U12 Soccer Team Advance to N.I. School's Plate Semi-Final

Congratulations to our U12 soccer team who booked their place in the N.I. School's Plate semi-final on Wednesday after a hard fought 3-nil win over a very well organised St. Colm's High School, Draperstown.

Business Talk

Many thanks to former pupil and proprietor of Castle Coffee Tim Harney for assisting our Year 12 Business Studies students with their controlled assessment research task.

Tim spoke about the pros and cons of being a sole trader and the importance of customer service.

200 Hour Epic Award

Congratulations to Eamon O'Hagan who has received a Gold 200 hour Epic Award!

Eamon has been volunteering with 5 Star, Edmund Rice Camp, in school activities CBS Omagh home work mentor, helping out with open days etc., and For Sight charity shop.

EPIC (Empowering People In Communities) is completely free, and open to volunteers of all ages and for all types of volunteering. To qualify for an EPIC Award, volunteers must make a commitment of at least 50 hours, within any 12-month period. These hours can be gained through volunteering with one organisation, or with multiple organisations simultaneously.

For more information see

<https://omaghvolunteercentre.org/epic-awards>

Handball

Well done to Daithi McMullen and Cormac Cunningham who played recently at the QUB PEC in the Queen's Future Stars Handball competition representing Omagh CBS.

SCIENCE WEEK

11th-14th March

To celebrate, Year 8 Science Club will take place during lunch time (period 6) in room 13 on Wednesday 13th and Thursday 14th March

Please contact Mrs. Traynor or Mrs. Maguire if you would like to sign up.