Our school has a rich tradition of providing our students with a broad and balanced curriculum and a wide range of extra-curricular activities to develop the talents, skills and attributes required for their life after Omagh CBS.

We are conscious that in an ever-changing society it is important to protect those assets that we cherish most:

- Our faith
- Our traditions
- Our culture and heritage

Through Cairde CBS, we must continue to make this provision which contributes to an enriched school experience.

We are committed to safeguarding the ethos of our Christian Brothers School for the future, maintaining our historical values and our sense of shared community.

There are challenges ahead for us at Omagh CBS. Meeting the needs of our students within reduced budgets will require additional moral, social and financial support.

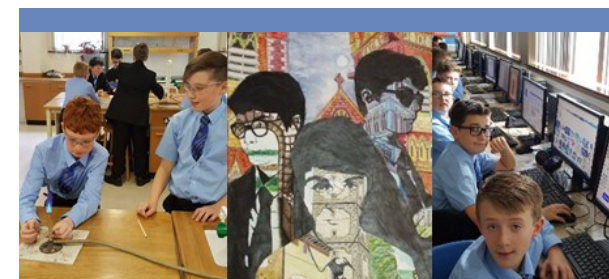

With your Cairde na mBráithre membership, we will ensure that our young men carry your story onwards within the spirit of Edmund Rice.

Have courage; the good seed will grow up in the children's hearts.

Blessed Edmund Rice

*We know our heritage from our past;
We see our future in our students ...*

Our Heritage Mount St Columba 1861

On January 14th 1861 the school opened its doors for the first time with 121 boys. On May 7th the school was placed under the patronage of Saint Columba.

The Old School at Mount St. Columba

Kevlin Road 1967

Work commenced on the new Grammar School during October 1966, with the doors on the Kevlin Road opening for the first time to pupils on September 4th 1967.

Cairde ...

Like every school, we are faced with constant challenges to our provision, the promotion of our Irish culture, sport and the arts and maintaining our faith in Edmund Rice values

Our young people in particular face growing pressures; financially and emotionally.

We unashamedly see Cairde na mBráithre as the constant support our students need.

We aspire, with your help to:

- Promote a Cairde na mBráithre network.
- Have students proud of their heritage, helping them make ambitious choices.
- Ensure our young people have the proper cultural, sporting, spiritual and educational opportunities they otherwise may not by:
 - Supporting the Irish traditions in language, music, sports and the arts.
 - Promote accessibility, so that all students and cultural provision receive the necessary support as they require it.

As Cairde na mBráithre, let's secure a better experience in challenging times for our school and our students.

It's what's vital for all of us in Cairde na mBráithre!

'Were we to know the merit of only going from one street to another to serve a neighbour for the love of God, we would prize it more than silver or gold.'

Blessed Edmund Rice
